Project Internet Banking System
Description	This Web Portal will serve as an interface for all the banking services where the client can easily access his account/s, perform inter account transactions and to inquire about the previous transactions.
Features	1. The client can register a new account 2. The client can login to the system using a secure login. 3. The client should have direct access to his/her different accounts where he can view a history of previous transactions. 4. The client should have the ability to perform transactions between different accounts.
Constraints	• Web-based system / PC based • Unique user IDs • Admin features needed
User Categories	• Client • Admin